

Hello everyone,

We heard from a lot of people who really loved those Lunch & Learns where we got a better understanding of our UMA coworkers and their backgrounds. We thought we'd expand on that, giving more people an opportunity to share their stories!

We will be starting a new Employee Profile campaign, similar to what you occasionally see on the Intranet site, but this will be featuring our UMA folks! We'll learn a bit more about each of the divisions, about unfamiliar jobs, and hopefully some fun facts about your team members.

We're looking for volunteers to share a photo or two and take a few minutes to answer the following questions:

- Name
- Job title
- Location
- Before teleworking began, where did you primarily work
- When did you start working for WSDOT?
- What is your role at WSDOT? Give us a brief summary of what you do as part of your job.
- What is your proudest achievement at WSDOT?
- Tell us a little something about yourself, a project you've worked on, or something that interests you?

Want a few ideas? Here's a list of suggestions:

- What is a unique challenge you've faced while working from home, and how did you adapt?
- What has been a highlight of your work from home experience?
- What is the best advice anyone has ever given you?
- What is the one thing you wish others knew about what you do at work or your life in general?
- What do you like to do for fun (hobbies, TV shows, book series, etc.)?
- What is your favorite Washington vacation/getaway spot?
- If you could time travel, what year would you travel to and why?
- Who would you most like to have dinner with and why?
- What is your favorite family tradition?
- If you could trade jobs with anyone at WSDOT for a day, what job would you want to have and why?
- What's one question you would like to ask your coworkers to learn more about them?

Aside from your name, job title and role at WSDOT, these questions are guidelines, if you feel uncomfortable answering something, please pass right by it. Or, if you finish the questionnaire and feel like you have more to share, by all means, keep on writing!

Please be aware, these features will be edited for punctuation and grammar.
