

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Mariners have ended their drought and made it to the postseason for the first time since 2001; and

WHEREAS, the M's came from behind to beat the Toronto Blue Jays in Game 2 and clinch the Wild Card; and

WHEREAS, the Mariners are facing their longtime rivals the Houston Astros in the American League Division Series; and

WHEREAS, Mariners Manager Scott Servais has led an amazing roster of players who coalesced into a true team; and

WHEREAS, the Mariners' historic 2022 season has brought all of Washington state together; and

WHEREAS, the team will come home to continue the ALDS series on Saturday, October 15, in Seattle ready to be welcomed by all Washingtonians;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby direct Washington State Ferries to rename all 21 ferries in honor of the Mariners players and staff to help celebrate this amazing season and wish them luck with the rest of postseason play.

Signed this 12th day of October, 2022

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Jay Inslee".

Governor Jay Inslee

